

Civic Responsibility and Dialogue
Across
Difference

- Organization has a plan to demonstrate its capacity to engage in productive dialogue with those on campus who disagree
- Organization has a plan to productively address polarization or conflict that may arise from its events/content
- Organization has a national affiliation that actively aligns with institutional goals

- Organization's plan to demonstrate its capacity to engage in productive dialogue with those who disagree is unclear or has errors
- Organization's plan to productively address polarization or conflict that may arise from its events/content has errors
- Organization has a national affiliation that raises questions about alignment with institutional goals

- Organization does not have a plan to demonstrate its capacity to engage in productive dialogue with those on campus who disagree
- Organization does not have a plan to productively address polarization or conflict that may arise from its events/content
- Organization has a national affiliation that undermines institutional goals